Project Safety Review - Ref: 002

Attached please find a review form containing comments from HSEO relevant to hazards assessment and controls applicable to your research proposal. Please review these comments and take action to implement them prior to starting work. In the case you have further questions, please feel free to contact the responsible HSEO personnel or indicate your comments on the Department Response column of the review form and return to us.

If we do not hear from you within a week, we will assume that the comments provided will be implemented.
